One Hundred and Fifty Needed to Annoy and Pester Young Women Cast as Nymphs.

Young men and boys, 150 of 'em, are ented to annoy, pester, and otherwise sturb a thousand or so young women It will all be a very classic nestiferous ness, however, for it is to be a part of the Greek pageant-drama, "The Fire Regained," which is to be produced here next month. More youths are needed to take the part of fawns, saturs sprites, and other mythological characters who in the course of the play come from the underworld to play come from the underworld to play come from the underworld to plague the maidens of Greece. Two husky athletes who can stage a real wrestling match are also demanded by Director George Lask, and he has led for every young man and boy nting some first-class stage experisoe, to meet him tomorrow night at 8 rolock in the Old Builders' Exchange, FOR SALE—MISCELLANEOUS A rehearsal of everybody who is to take part in the production is scheduled for that hour.
